LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Do You?

What to keep fully posted on Alliance matters? Do you want the Alliance to succeed and contribute to its success?

Do you want to read a bold and fearless discussion of your heaven-born rights as citizens of the soil?

Do you want encouragement in the fight you are making against the oppressors of your rights and privileges?

Do you want a true and stalwart friend for the cause?

If you do take the ADVOCATE, read and ponder over its contents and let us hear from you when you have anything to say to advance the interests of the Alliance. Help us, and we will help you.

There seems to be a want of harmony existing between some of the neighbors in the south-western part of town. Justice Fraser having frequent complaints from that section about personal rights being invaded.

The lemon squeeze which was to have been given Tuesday eve. at M. E. Parsonage has been postponed until this (Saturday) evening, Aug. 24. Refreshments, etc. Come every body—bring a lemon with you, and have a good time.

RECEPTION.

A reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. M. Malone last Sunday to Rev. Thos. F. Coffey. A large number of friends assembled to pay their respects to the guest in whose honor the reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Malones' well known reputation for hospitality is a guarantee that nothing was lacking to make the occasion a most pleasant and successful one.

J. P. Limeburner, associate editor of the Meriden ADVOCATE is in the City on business. Mr. Limeburner was the funny man of the Topeka Sunday Ledger till recently. He is a natural wit from whose pen the laughable sayings drip as readily as sap from a sugar maple.—Topeka Capital.

Meriden has not had a real hard blow this year. Last year she had a severe tussle with a regular old hurricane; but perhaps the worst blow Meriden ever encountered was the night several years ago when five or six safes blew open and the party who did the blowing blew out of town with about $500. cash assets of Meriden citizens.

Don't Lose The Chance

The Weekly Capital and the Advocate for $1.35 per year is proving a great drawing card; many subscriptions are coming in for the combination. Those who wish to avail themselves of this offer had better take advantage of it as we shall only continue it for a limited period.

Rev. Cleaver, wife and Miss Dora Morton have gone to the United Brethren Camp meeting held near Lawrence.

Henry Sacks' wife and daughter, of Atchison, were guests last week of Mrs. Sacks' parents, who live a few miles out in the country.

Rev. Thos. Coffey departed last Wednesday for Scranton, Pa., where he has a flock under his charge numbering nearly four thousand.

Mrs. A. J. Kane, son and daughter Arthur and Bessie, have returned to Meriden and will enliven the social circles of our city by their presence.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Tewksberry, of Topeka, were the guests last Sunday and Monday of Dan. Frazer, and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Tewksberry were among the earliest of Kansas settlers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Crone, Mrs. W. H. Wood and Mrs. D. L. Hollingsworth took in the Pontoon bridge excursion at Leavenworth Thursday. They reported a vast crowd and a great balloon ascension.

Rev. J. A. Hubenger, accompanied by his daughter Mamie were Meriden visitors last week. Our old and much esteemed friend received a hearty reception from old acquaintances and his daughter enjoyed a pleasant reunion with her old school mates.

Dr. Dawson had a very narrow escape last Monday. He was about driving across the rail road track at the fifth street crossing when a special came along at a tremendous speed. The doctor pulled his horse back in time to escape by a hairs breadth.

J. D. Brundage, of Nortonville district, agent of the Continental Life Insurance company was a Meriden visitor last week. Mr. Brundage was one of the earliest settlers of Kansas, coming here in '63 and locating in Jefferson. Den, as he is familiarly known is a rustler for business.

Miss Otie Graden, of this place who has been paying an extended visit in Colorado, returned home last Tuesday. Her friends were delighted to welcome her back again. It is reported however that Miss Otie will return shortly to the great country of canons, and that there is some one out there who will induce her to follow Mrs. Garrett's example.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gardner started for Missouri last Thursday for a short vacation from the cares of active business. There are very few of our citizens who have been more attentive to business than Mr. and Mrs. Gardner, and few who have taken less recreation. That they will appreciate and enjoy a brief respite, no one will doubt who knows them. We wish them a pleasant journey and a safe return.

The Decker-Martin Wedding.

A brief announcement was made in the last issue of the ADVOCATE of the Decker-Martin wedding owing to a failure to obtain the particulars. From the parsonage where the knot was tied the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride's parents at Rock Creek. Extensive preparations had been made for their reception. Nearly two hundred guests were assembled to do honor to the occasion. A table heavily laden with elegant refreshments, was an important and conspicuous feature of the affair. The "Light fantastic toe" was tripped in the house and on the green lawn that surrounded it. Becker Bros of Meriden furnished the music. A high moon softly shed its radiance on the merry dancers, who danced the live long night until warned by the glimmering dawn peeping over the eastern hills that it was time to depart for home. The occasion was a bright and joyous one and the happy couple start out in life with the brightest promises. They received many handsome presents which space will not permit to enumerate in full. The following are some of the gifts: Rev. Thos. F. Coffey, $10. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin $25. Ella Martin, set solid silver spoons; Annie Martin, handsome set knives and forks. Chas. Decker and Miss Agnes Brown, of Oskaloosa, a splendid gold watch and chain. Agnes Martin, bed spread. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Decker, $25. Wm. Decker, $5. Mary Decker, $20. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Coffey, elaborate set of chinaware. Carry Decker, $5. Eliza Decker, $5. Among those who made useful presents were: Miss M. A. Turner, Miss Katie Turner, Wm. Turner, F. E. Coffey, D. A. Hart, Miss M. Welsh, Mrs. Thos. Turner, Mrs. H. Edwards, Mrs. Anna King, Miss Sally Long, Emma Richards, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wood, Laura Decker, V. Davis, Jas. Spurlock, Anna Klening, Smith and Toney Gheer. The ADVOCATE adds its best wishes for a prosperous and happy career for Mr. and Mrs. Decker.

Remember we will not be undersold. KENDALL MERCANTILE Co.

MARRIED.

On the 9th, inst. at Canon City Colorado, Miss Jessie C. Peebler of Meriden, and D. A. Garrett, of Rockvale, Colorado. Mr. Garrett is the station agent at Rockvale; he is the half-brother of Miss Otie Graden, of Meriden. The wedded couple will live in Rockvale where they are nicely established in housekeeping. Mr. Garrett is spoken of as a young man of exemplary character and excellent business ability. The bride was one of Meriden's brightest and most popular young ladies. She has the best wishes of her many Meriden friends.

MARRIED—In Topeka, on the 21st inst, Alice Seal, of Meriden and E. Sherman, of North Topeka. Ed Sherman is well known in this community where he numbers a great many warm friends.
